THE FAMILY OF JOHN LAWRENCE.

THE EDITION OF 1869.

[Quotation from the Boston Daily Evening Traveller.]

“Altogether, the record of the Lawrences is one of which any family might be proud; and not less occasion have they to be satisfied with the thorough and beautiful and convenient manner in which their genealogical history has been drawn out by their industrious and most worthy kinsman, the compiler of this handsome volume.”

[From the New Eng. Hist. and Gen. Register.]

“The book is beautifully printed, the plan of arrangement is clear, and the dates are given with satisfactory exactness. In all these respects we can with pleasure assure the author that he has done a good work.”

“It is a work which must have required immense labor, and has been done with remarkable accuracy.”—SAM'L A. GREEN, M.D.

“The books have been distributed, and give perfect satisfaction; all expressing pleasure in having so full and complete a work.”—A. R. MASON.

[From the Congregationalist, July 25. 1877.]

“This work has been continued to the year 1876, by the affectionate labor of our friend, the REV. JOHN LAWRENCE. In 1847 he published the first portion. Ten years later he printed a second edition. In 1869 he continued, enlarged and perfected it. And now, in this beautiful 8 vo. of 74 pages, he adds so much of material, whether new or in continuation of family lines before given, as his dilligent labor has been able to recover. Few families in New England have been so happy both in the materials of their history, and in the felicity of its arrangements as the Lawrences.”

“BOSTON, July 20, 1881.

“MY DEAR SIR:

“Accept my thanks for my share of the benefit which has resulted from your labors in hunting up the memorials of the Lawrences and in preserving what there are left.

“Yours truly,

“AMOS A. LAWRENCE.

THE NAME.

OF LAWRENCE, as a personal and family name, it is sufficient to say, as to the orthography, that it is now almost universally spelled and written Lawrence, and not Lawrence or Lawrance, as formerly was the case.

The derivation of this name of men may be traced to the Latin word Laurus—Laurentius. Its signification has been thus given on the Town Records of Hingham, Mass., first page: “Christian names for men now most used with the signification, Lawrence—flourishing like a bay-tree.”

Laurentius, also called St. Lawrence, chief deacon of Sixtus, Bishop of Rome, is the first person known to whose name our own bears any resemblance.

To Sixtus, going to martyrdom, he said, “Whither goest thou, father, without thy son?”—“You shall follow me in three days,” was his answer. And so indeed it proved. “I know,” said the Prefect of Rome, “ye value yourselves for contemning death, and therefore ye shall not die at once.” Laurentius was then stripped, extended, and fastened to a gridiron, and broiled to death by a slow fire, Aug. 10, A.D. 258.

The first individual of this name who lived in England, yet ascertained, was Lawrence the monk. Collier, in his dictionary, has the name Laurentius. In Harris’s “History of Kent,” it is Lawrence. He came from Italy with Austin, who was sent to Britain for the propagation of Christianity in the island.

Upon the death of Austin, he succeeded him to the Archbishopric of Canterbury. He is said to have been both learned and pious; and, at his death, was buried in the Abbey of St. Austins, A.D. 916.

WATERTOWN AND HOMESTEAD.

The Indian name of Watertown, the birthplace of our family, as found in its early records, was "Pequusset."

Its present name was probably given on account of the abundant supply of water found there.

Among the families which first settled in Watertown were those of Sir R. Saltonstall and Rev. George Phillips, in all a dozen or more, that came over in the "Arbella," a ship which arrived at Salem in June, 1630.

Proceeding from Salem to Charlestown, they next passed up Charles river about four miles, and began their settlement, the fourth in the colony, which rapidly increased in numbers and prosperity. Though inland, the place derived great advantage from the tide-water of the Charles river.

On the earliest list of proprietors is found the name of "John Lawrence." His homestead of eight acres was bounded east by Common street, south by John Biscoe's homestead, north by T. Hawkins, west by his own nine acres of meadow. He was the grantee of ten lots, and purchaser of Isaac Cummins's grant of thirty-five acres, in the "Great Dividends."

On his removal to Groton, in 1662, he sold his homestead—a dwelling-house and about thirteen acres, "being the now mansion-house of said John Lawrence"—to John Biscoe.

THE FAMILY, ITS RELATIONS TO SOCIETY, AND GENEALOGY.

In date and form it is primeval, as divinely ordained in Eden by God, in the creation of man, male and female; and their union in marriage, whereby they became one flesh, was the first manifestation of the human race in social relations and duties.

The family is dual as to parentage, or persons joined in marriage, while primeval and a unit in form. Adam and Eve, the first, were also the only, persons created as progenitors of mankind. One man and one woman were thus divinely constituted the parents of the race.

Moreover, it is normal, as being the only established and lawful state of social union and life for mankind.

This union of man and woman, and state of those one in heart, obligations, and duties, is alone normal and adapted to the wants and welfare of the race.

The family is germinal — the seed-bud or appointed means for the propagation of the human race. God blessed the man and woman created and joined in marriage by him, and said, "Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth." Hence, "marriage is" not only "honorable in all," but the family state is the only one approved of God, and lawful to man, for the propagation of his species. While, therefore, the race germinates in the family, and is propagated from generation to generation, a thousand social relations, duties, comforts and delights spring up therein to bless mankind.

The family is essential, as without it the world would be a mere chaos of human beings. The domestic state is indispensable to the health and comfort of mankind.

It is essentially necessary to that moral purity in the sexes required by God, and alone respectable among men. It is the substratum or ground-work of all social relations, domestic comforts, and good manners in society.

THE FAMILY A TYPE.

It is specially typical, as it forshadows — first, the School, in the nurture and education of children. Home education is all some children ever have. Second, the State. Family government was the first known.

The father was a prince or ruler in his house, as Abraham and the patriarchs. Children were subjects of government first in the family. Obedience to parental authority insures obedience in the State. Equity and law in the family are such in the State.

Third, the Church. Indeed, in the first ages of the race, piety, fear and worship of God, were confined to the family. Naturally enough has the father been regarded both a prince and a priest in his own house; and as far as children are trained in the love and service of God, so far is there hope for the Church of Christ.

The conclusion of the subject is, that the family, as constituted in man's creation and condition in Eden, is universal. Not for Adam and Eve only, and their posterity to the deluge; not for Noah and his sons only, in their generations — but for the human race in all time, was the family state ordained,* that every man and woman might share and enjoy its blessings. How else shall the people of our land and the world have homes? How else shall the tender and endearing relations of kindred be perpetuated? How, without the family, can domestic happiness be preserved in the earth?

Marriage and parentage thus unite, in the providence of God, to form and maintain the family, which furnishes both the occasion and material for Genealogy, this being simply an “enumeration of ancestors and their children in the natural order of succession.”

The most ancient and important record of the kind, unparalleled indeed in its nature, is the genealogical table given in the New Testament; extending, as recorded in one case, from Abraham, and in the other from Adam, to Christ, a period of four thousand years.

“Mary, the noble virgin of David's royal race,” of whom the Saviour was born, terminates the long series of generations, which, sustained by life-giving power, like a golden chain extends onward through the whole course of development preceding the advent of Christ. No other nation but hers could furnish such a genealogy; no other Book than the Bible publish it to the world.

band, of an uncle, Dea. Isaac Woods, of Marlborough. Isaac Lawrence lived for a time in Norwich, Conn.

13. xi. ELISABETH, b. May 9, 1655, in Boston; and by will of her father "to live with Mr. Ensign Buss, of Concord, till of age."
14. xii. JONATHAN, b. —, in Watertown; probably m., Nov. 5, 1677, Rebecca Rutter, of Cambridge; died in 1729, leaving no issue. By his will, dated Aug. 27, 1725, approved Oct. 29, 1729, he left to the town of Groton "£100 towards the purchasing and procuring a good meeting-house bell, and the putting it up." It was voted, "that the name of Lieut. (JONATHAN) Lawrence be set thereon." Also, he left "to the church of Christ in Groton £40, to be laid out for the procuring of some silver vessel or vessels for the church's use, as they shall order;" also "£20, the income to be annually paid or accounted for to the settled or ordained minister."
15. xiii. ZECHARIAH, b. March 9, 1658-9, in Watertown. He was a mariner, and lived probably in Boston.

Elisabeth, wife of John Lawrence, died in Groton, Aug. 29, 1663. He m., Nov. 2, 1664, Susanna, daughter of Wm. Batchelder, of Charlestown; by whom he had:

16. xiv. ABIGAIL, b. Jan. 9, 1666, in Groton.
17. xv. SUSANNA, b. July 3, 1667, in Groton.

He was admitted a freeman, April 17, 1637, when about twenty-eight years old; though it will be seen, by the early Massachusetts Records, that the freeman's oath was given at first to males of only sixteen years. Feb. 28, 1636, he received three acres of land, his share of a grant then made to the townsmen, a hundred and six in number. In 1650, he bought of the town fifteen acres of common land (called King's Common). "In 1654, Hugh Mason received of John Lawrence, clerk, £2. 17s. 6d., money for town or parish use." His removal to Groton is determined by various facts and dates. Town Records are in existence, dated June 23, 1662; the first probably made. As one of the original proprietors, he owned "a twenty-acre right." The sale of his lands and mansion-house in Watertown was made in 1662. In December of the same year, it appears by the records of Groton, "meet men were found amongst the inhabitants," of whom "John Lawrence" was one, "who were chosen selectmen." He was evidently a man of some intelligence and influence, and held a good place in the public esteem. Though a large landholder for the times, he is said to have carried on the business of a carpenter both in Watertown and Boston. He died in Groton, July 11, 1667; leaving his sons Nathaniel and Joseph, and wife Susanna, executors of his will. The widow, Susanna B. Lawrence, died July 8, 1668, in Charlestown.

- (189) FAMILY No. XXXVII.—NANCY TEMPLE, wife of John Lawrence, died Jan. 6, 1871, in Reading, Mass. Her sickness of a few days by pneumonia terminated unexpectedly and suddenly to all. For nearly sixteen years she had held the relations and performed the duties of a wife and mother; with the good health so uniformly enjoyed, the event of death had never been anticipated and was the more distressing to her bereaved husband. Her love and trust as a wife were all that could be desired. Her tender care and nurture of children were the outflow of a heart happy in the relation and delighted with the joys and duties of a mother. To natural sweetness of disposition were added the comeliness of personal accomplishments, of education and graces of a true christian, so that she excelled in all good qualities and her home was a sanctuary and delight. But the record of her life and virtues cannot be written. They who knew her well said she was too good for this world, so unselfish and generous, doing for others all she could. Then too so pure in heart and life so spiritual and devout, living as she prayed as if each day might be the last. The smile resting on her face, as she sweetly fell asleep in death, was proof to what regions of light and bliss her spirit had gone. She was buried and a dear child in lot No. 61 in the cemetery, St. Johnsbury, bought in 1854 for the graves of a father and mother and the son who secured the same.

Mrs. Mary Pomroy was the daughter of Maj. Philip Goss, of Winchester, N. H., and at the time of her marriage to Esq. Pomroy, widow of Dea. Hubbard Lawrence, of St. Johnsbury, Vt. To speak of her as a woman and friend, as a wife and mother and christian to those who knew her in those relations would be needless; many of her friends and kindred indeed have died; yet it may be truly said that her personal qualities and appearance were not more agreeable and estimable than were the virtues of character, the intelligence and graces of her daily life. But it is as a mother she was best known and is most revered by him who here acknowledges her as the joy of his childhood and strength of youth. Her love, counsels and prayers, her example and holy life are still the joy of his heart, by whom this record is made for the sake of children and kindred. Her burial at first in Stanstead, in 1857 she was buried in lot No. 61 of the cemetery in St. Johnsbury.

a magistrate for the administration of justice and the peace of society. After becoming a christian his usefulness increased and with the means for doing good enjoyed, few men have been more consistent or more worthy of esteem — exemplary and faithful as a deacon and member of the Church of Christ so long as life and strength were continued. Mrs. Harriet B. Pomroy survives, has lived in Stanstead or with other friends with health for enjoyment of life and doing good.

III. Persons doing Military service.—Nicholas Lawrence, Philip Goss of Montague, and Joel Roberts of St. Johnsbury, in the Revolution. Edward F. Lawrence, Samuel A. Lawrence, Charles A. Lawrence, Orlando Lawrence, and Enoch Blanchard, M. D., in the Rebellion. Col. Benj. Pomroy in the Canada Rebellion.

V. Preachers and Ministers.—Lucius Doolittle, Benjamin and Rufus Pomroy, Zenas Goss, Edward A. Hubbard, and John Lawrence, Samuel D. Hosmer, E. A. Lawrence, jr., Edward L. Graves.

VI. The following statement given from papers not before examined. The value of household furniture kept for use, beds, bedding, pictures and articles made from domestic materials and kitchen utensils excepted, in families of Lawrences residing in Ashby, Groton and Pepperell, twenty-five in number, as reported 1815, ranged from $5 to $60. Of gold and silver watches, — one, silver, was reported by Jabez Lawrence of Ashby. About twenty Lawrences in these towns reported, 1814, taxable property in value from $500 to $5000.

Watches were not so plenty then as now, nor luxuries so much sought. Possibly some of the Lawrences were richer than these reported, though all had enough for good living.

VII. The new Lawrence families are given as received, not so full in dates and residences as is desirable. The records are correct and no family in the line of descent from John Lawrence coming into my hands has failed of a place in a printed genealogy.

VIII. Goss is a name short and good, easy to speak and be heard. Formerly it had e mute final letter.

The family of Philip Goss first settled in Lancaster, Mass., recently gathered, is here given as fully and fairly as could be done, some errors may be found—more might have been given of some families if obtained. To trace up the Gosses of other families in the country has not been desired, though notes of a few first settlers in Mass., are given.

IX. The name Ponroy is given as most familiar to me. It has been found in old records Pomeroy, Pomroy, Pummery and Pumry.

The only difference in the name as now used is caused by retaining e which in common usage is mute. Euphony favors it as here given.

With much labor has a portion of this sketch been traced and made as full as could be, though not in early records so satisfactory as might be desired.

X. The value and importance of genealogy to the family and society many quite disregard. Ask a farmer for the pedigree of his horses, cows or sheep, he will trace back to some noted animals of the best stock and refer you to books in his library.

Ask for his own pedigree, and possibly he can trace back two generations though not quite certain what his grandfather's given name was.

A man in Ohio could not tell from what town in Vermont his father moved into that State. Such indifference or ignorance is not respectful to the dead nor praiseworthy to the living.

XI. This portion of genealogy comprises in three lines of descent many families never before printed ; from the nature of the case and for convenience and economy they are grouped together. The notice of the "Family" in the first part is just as good for the Gosses and Pomroys as the Lawrencees. The sentence on the title page from Amos Lawrence about "home" will gain universal assent. To call the collection of families "In Memoriam" will do. To inscribe it to the memory of a much loved sainted mother, is both a duty and my highest privilege.
